

- 1. It says: Applicants should clearly and comprehensively respond to each bullet within each of the sections described below. It is critical to answer each question. Provide no more than 10 pages. Should we include the bullet points directly on our narrative or would the title suffice?

Headings for each section should be clearly labeled, however no, you do not need to indicate each bullet point directly in your narrative. We do recommend you ensure all bullet points are answered in your overall narrative.