

HCBS Programs Proposed Changes Survey

Public Comment Period: Posted: November 10, 2014 Ends: December 10, 2014

Please take a few minutes to answer the questions regarding your response to the proposed HCBS Program changes. Answering these questions will not affect your relationship with KDADS or the services you receive from them in a negative way.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE INPUT PROCESS AND WHERE TO FIND MORE DETAILS

The draft renewals, which include the Transition Plan for Home and Community-Based Services (HCBS) Settings and proposed changes for each HCBS Program's renewal are available online at www.KDADS.ks.gov for public comment until December 10, 2014. The Public Comment period will be open for 30 days to allow all consumers and providers of the follow programs:

- Frail Elderly
- Intellectual/Developmental Disability
- Physical Disability
- Traumatic Brain Injury

Additionally, KDADS has provided a summary of the proposed changes. Only the areas of proposed changes identified in the summary document are available for public comment. New documents with helpful information about the transition plan have been posted online as well.

You may access the documents three ways:

- Online: www.KDADS.ks.gov – on the home page
- In Person: At your local Community Developmental Disability Organization (CDDO), Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) or Center for Independent Living (CIL).
- By Email: HCBS-KS@kdads.ks.gov – Please notify us if you need an accommodation

SURVEY QUESTIONS

Based on what you heard during the public input session or have read in the documents provided at www.KDADS.ks.gov, please answer the following questions.

1. What sounds promising about these changes?

2. What concerns do you have about these changes?

3. What isn't clear to you about these changes?

4. What other questions or comments do you have about these changes?

THANK YOU FOR YOUR TIME! Your answers are very important to KDADS in understanding public and consumer opinion about these changes.