

Ethics for Community-Based Service Providers

Course Description

This course introduces ethical issues for mental health services in general and applies them to Community-Based Services.

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of the on-line course “Ethics for CBS Providers” the participant will have received a score of at least 80% on the Post Test. To attain this score the participant will have a general understanding ethical issues and dilemmas for CBS Providers including:

- Three Reasons Ethical Codes are Necessary
- Six Professional Responsibilities for CBS Providers
- Using Common Sense in Ethical Considerations
- The Standard of Care
- Seven Basic Ethical Principles
- Confidentiality, Court Orders and Subpoenas
- Conflicts of Interest
- Ethical Implications of Gifts
- Supervision and Ethics
- Reporting Ethical Violations
- Ethical Decision Making
- Documentation and Ethics
- Three Keys to Practicing Ethically

Topics Covered in Ethics for Community-Based Service Providers

- Why Ethical Codes are Necessary
- Professional Responsibilities for CBS Providers
- The Common Sense Factor
- Origins of Ethical Standards
- Ethical Principles
- Ethical Issues
- Processes that Support Ethical Practices
- Three Keys to Practicing Ethically

CEU's Awarded Upon Completion 4