

The Treatment Team

Course Description

This course introduces the concept of and emphasizes the importance of the treatment team in Community Based Services. You will learn who is on the team and how teams work together on behalf of the individual receiving services and the family.

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of the online course “The Treatment Team,” the participant will have received a score of at least 80% on the Post Quiz. To attain this score, the participant will have an understanding of treatment teams, including:

- What is a Treatment Team and Why is it Important
- Who is on a Treatment Team – What Roles Do They Play
- The Specific Function of fifteen CMHC Partners
- The Importance of Progress Notes for Informing Team Members
- Specific Communication Guidelines
- How to Put Together an Individualized Team

Topics Covered in Treatment Team

- The Child and Family Team
 - The Child and Family
 - CMHC Partners
 - Community Partners and Natural Supports
- Team Communication
- Communication Guidelines
- Team Gaps and Overlaps
- Building Individualized Teams

CEU's Awarded Upon Completion 3